INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF APPLICATION FOR IMPORT LETTER OF CREDIT

(The numbered paragraphs below refer to corresponding sections in the Application)

1. Indicate by "X" in appropriate box. Delete "my" or "our" as applicable. An Import Letter of Credit can only be cancelled or modified with the consent of all parties thereto.
2. Give full name and address of buyer (i.e.) name of applicant unless the applicant is acting for another party.
3. Give full name and address (including street address) of beneficiary.
4. Specify currency and maximum amount to be made available under the credit.
5. State if partial shipments are allowed or not allowed.
6. State if transshipment is allowed and, under what conditions, if any (e.g.) sea shipments from Far East points to Toronto could restrict transshipment at Vancouver only.
7. From-point of shipment To-point of destination; if shipment is by railroad or by truck, state points of loading and unloading.
8. Last date for shipment could be at the latest the same as but NOT AFTER the expiry date.
9. Insert expiry date for negotiation of drafts at place of domicile of beneficiary. The expiry date could be the same as the last date for shipment or about 10 days later in the case of sea shipments or about 5 days later in the case of air
10. Indicate the term of the drafts or bills of exchange to be drawn under the credit. This may be sight, 30, 60, or 90 days after sight etc. depending on the terms of the underlying contract.

Also indicate the percentage of the invoice cost of the merchandise up to which the beneficiary is entitled to draw, usually 100%.

 - a) Give full name and address of buyer as notify party. Specify whether freight is to be Prepaid or Collect.
 - b) If applicable state the type of document and to whom consigned. Specify Freight Prepaid or Collect.
 - c) If applicable indicate by "X" and to whom consigned. Specify Freight Prepaid or Collect.
 - d) A commercial invoice should always be specified as this document is the basis for determining the value of the shipment. State how many copies required.
 - e) State country for which customs invoices are required (e.g.) Canada, etc. State number of copies. Invoices in quintuplicate are required if goods are to be cleared through Canadian customs. In other countries specify if special customs invoices are required.
 - f) If applicable indicate by "X". For overseas shipments, marine and war risk insurance is required. State if additional risks (apart from ordinary marine hazards) are to be covered such as theft, pilferage etc. Specify % coverage of invoice value, at least 110% of C.I.F. value of the merchandise.
 - g) List individually any other documents required, stating number of copies. Depending on the merchandise involved, additional documents such as Packing List, Inspection Certificate, Certificate of Analysis, etc. may be required. Indicate by whom the required certificates may be issued. Certificate of Origin is required by the customs of some countries.
12. Place "X" in appropriate box.
13. Insert brief general description of goods omitting specifications as to grade, size, quality, price, etc. These details should already be covered in the underlying contract between the buyer and seller; reference may be made to the contract.
14. Indicate terms of shipment whether C.I.F., C & F, F.O.B., etc. (named point).
15. Indicate here instructions in regard to disposition of documents in cases where it is necessary to receive a set of documents by air mail for customs purposes or any other special instructions.
16. Place "X" in the appropriate box as per conditions of the contract between buyer and seller.
17. Specify the number of days allowed for document presentation (maximum 21 days under I.C.C. regulations). This should agree, wherever possible, with the difference between the last dates for shipment and expiry as indicated in sections 8 and 9 above. Documents should be presented as soon as is reasonably possible to allow them to be in the consignee's hands before arrival of the carrying vessel to avoid demurrage/storage charges.

GENERAL: INDICATE NAME AND TELEPHONE NUMBER OF PERSON TO BE CONTACTED TO CLARIFY APPLICATION OR DRAWINGS
